WOW

Stop selling the food;
Sell the experience.

Believe that the way food is delivered and presented is more important than the food itself.”

HOW DO YOU CREATE THAT WOW?

- Successfully catered events feature that correct: portions, menus, desserts, looks, and other aspects customized perfectly to the customer's needs.
- Ask your clients what story they want their guest to experience.

Best Practices

- ☐☐ Make a sample centerpiece and take it to the venue you will be using.
 - * Bring along any table linens/dishes you will be using and set up a table.
 - * Adjust the lighting to simulate the party conditions and step back.
 - * Does the centerpiece create the mood you wanted? Is it tall enough? Is it too short? Does it need to be wider or longer?
 - * Next, Sit down at the table.
 - * Can you see the other side of the table?
 - * Will it interfere with conversation?
 - * Does it create a focal point for the room? Or just the table?

- ☐☐ Remember, don't use scented candles for the tables.

- ☐☐ Adding rose petals (fake or real) to any table adds elegance.
