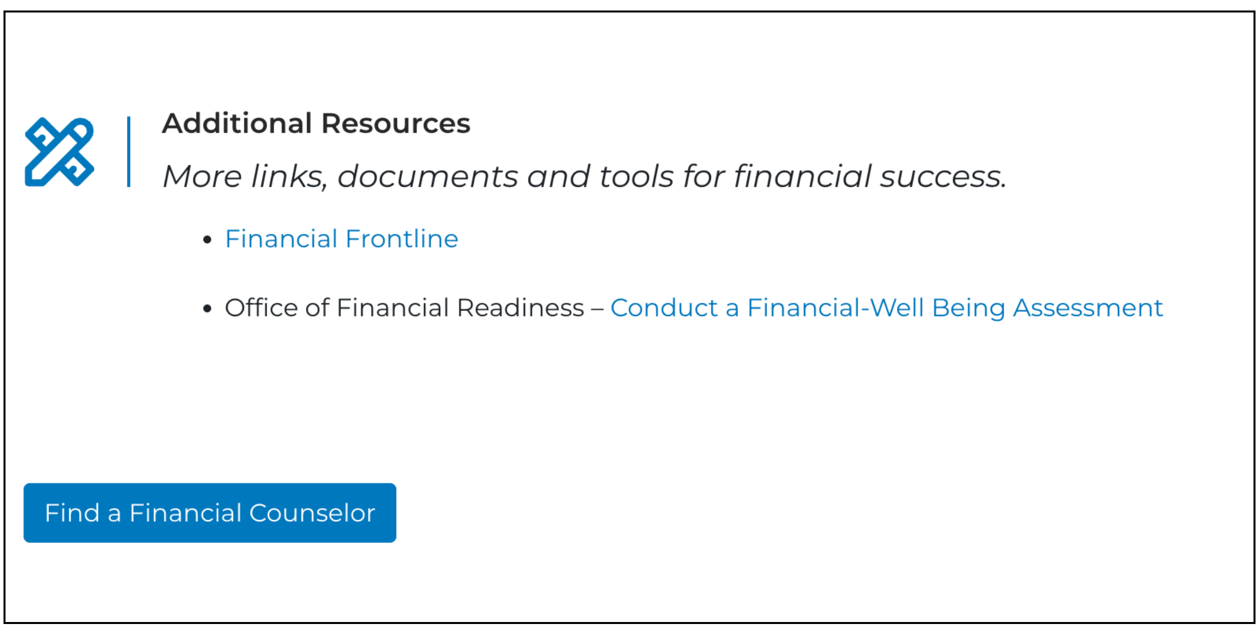
Financial Readiness Program Section Update Instructions

Below are instructions for how and where to plug in installation-specific content into the new Financial Readiness Program section.

Master Your Money Page

The “Find a Financial Counselor” button at the bottom currently points to the Contact page for the section. If installation content managers would prefer to point it elsewhere, they are able to edit the Content block containing the button to point the link to a different destination.



Credit and Debt Assistance

The “Find a Financial Counselor” button at the bottom currently points to the Contact page for the section. If installation content managers would prefer to point it elsewhere, they are able to edit the Content block containing the button to point the link to a different destination.

Retirement and Financial Planning

At the bottom of this page, there is a brief text blurb and a “Schedule Appointment” button. The button currently points to the Contact page. If installation content managers would prefer to point it elsewhere, they are able to edit the Content block containing the button to point the link to a different destination.

Schedule an appointment with a Financial Readiness Specialist today and explore more resources at Financial Frontline.

Schedule Appointment

Emergency Financial Assistance

At the bottom of this page, there is a “How to Apply for Assistance” section - this whole section can be edited to add, remove, or modify information that would be helpful for users looking to apply.

How To Apply for Assistance

- Speak with your chain of command
- Apply for Financial Assistance Online
- Visit your local AER Office